

Dennis P. McCann

Prof. Dennis P. McCann is an emeritus of Agnes Scott College, US. He has been teaching business ethics in United States for over three decades. During the past fifteen years, Prof. McCann has been dedicated in research and teaching business ethics in China and Southeast Asia, aiming to developing proper localized textbooks tailored for Chinese and Asian cultures in light of the empirical research of philosophy and religion.

Prof. McCann has a rich experience in teaching and research around globe. 2005-2006, visited Hong Kong University as candidate of Fulbright programme, working as the director of the American Development Research Center of Hong Kong University for one year. 2006 - 2008, worked as visiting professor of the Department of Philosophy and Religion of Hong Kong Baptist University. 1996 - 2001, worked as the executive director of The Society of Christian Ethics, the most prestigious academic institution for religious ethics study. Now, works as Director of Department of Case Analysis of International Economic Ethics, UIBE, China. Over the previous fifteen years, Prof. MacCann has visited and taught in Hong Kong, Chinese Mainland, the Philippines, Malaysia, Thailand, Japan, Indonesia, India and etc. In addition to his vast teaching experience, Prof. MacCaan also contributed multiple academic books and papers. His latest book Christianity and Business Culture, coauthored with Lee Kam-hon, Mary Ann and Ching Yuen is published this year.

Prof. Dennis P. McCann' s research partner in UIBE is Prof. Liu Baocheng.