

MARÍA MÉNDEZ GASTELUMENDI

Prof. Maria Méndez Gastelumendi studied as a postdoctoral student in the Department of Philosophy of Catholic University of Peru from 2000 to 2001. Prof.

Gastelumendi is a prolific scholar. Her representative works include: Drug, Poverty and Human Right: Drug Dealing and Its Impact on Society (Idei-Pucp, Lima, 2010), Peru's Map of Drug Dealing (Idei-Pucp, Lima, 2009), Politics and Society of Peru Today: on Peru's Politics (Research Center of Peruvian Social Economy and Konrad-Adenauer-Stiftung Foundation, Lima, 2003), Report on Peru's Human Development (UNDP, Lima, 1997), Migration, Identity and Development: the National Expectation (IDL, Lima, 1997), UN and Peru: about Their 50 Years' Cooperation and Progress (UN, Lima, 1995), A Young, New and Deep Peru (DESCO, Lima, 1990).

Prof. Gastelumendi is the independent non-executive director of Instituto de Nutricion Educacion y Desarrollo, the vice chief advisor of Peru's congress since Oct. 2011, the senior advisor of Málaga-Webb & Asociados Corp. since Jul. 2009. She has also been the senior researcher on international issues in Catholic University of Peru from Aug. 2008 to Aug. 2011, and the drug communication advisor of American Embassy to Peru from Nov. 2001 to Jul. 2008.

Prof. Maria Méndez Gastelumendi's research partner in UIBE is Prof. Liu Baocheng.