

Wu Weijun, PwC, Managing Partner of China Public Policies and Supervising Affairs, Managing Partner of China Financial Market and Beijing Financial Market, Committee Member of PwC Hong Kong(China)

1988, University of International Business and Economics, Bachelor;

1985, Hangzhou Institute of Business and Economics, Bachelor;

CPA of China, USA, UK and Hong Kong;

2004-2010, Council Member of the Association of Chartered Certified Accountants (ACCA);

2012, led the listing of H shares and A shares of Bank of China;

2008-2009, worked for Financial Service Authority (FSA), in charge of analyzing the cause and countermeasures of financial crisis, accounting principle reform and international coordination;

2003, led his team in designing the reform blueprint of Chinese financial organizations, devoted himself to promoting the system reform of Chinese financial sector, he is familiar with the banking and credit culture of China;

In July 2002, he was appointed partner of PwC in Hong Kong, providing auditing and consulting service for Chinese banking and capital market enterprises in Shanghai, New York, Sydney and Hong Kong.