

Liu Youguang, Vice President and Director of Committee of Experts and researcher of China Great Wall Industry Corporation

1987-1989, he studied in the Department of Electrical Engineering at the University of Huston in America;

1978-1982, he studied at Central College of Engineering majoring in High Voltage Technology and got his Bachelor's degree;

From 2009 to now, he is the Vice President and Director of Committee of Experts of China Great Wall Industrial Group Co. Ltd., and the General Manager of International Tendering Center;

2007-2009, he was the Vice President of China Great Wall Industrial Group Co. Ltd. and concurrently the General Manager of China Aerospace Science and Technology Consulting Firm;

In 2007, he was Vice President of China Great Wall Industrial Group Co. Ltd. and General Manager in the Development and Planning Department;

2006-2007, he was the General Manager in the Development and Planning Department in China Great Wall Industry Corporation;

2005-2006, he was the General Manager in the Asset Management Department of China Great Wall Industry Corporation.