

Wang Wei, General Manager of Beijing Railway Land Bridge International Logistics Co., Ltd

In 1989, studied in China Foreign Affairs University;

In 1986, gained Master's degree in Beijing Open University;

Now serving as director of China International Freight Forwarders Association (CIFA), standing director of Beijing International Freight Forwarders Association, member of Technical Committee for Standardization of CIFA, assessment expert of Ministry of Commerce, member of China freight forwarders certificate editorial committee, member of land bridge committee of CIFA, member of panel in international through railway transport of CIFA, and member of Multimodal Transport Committee of CIFA.

In 1987, served as general manager of outward transport department in China Railway Foreign Service Beijing Company;

In 1978, worked as a yardman in passenger traffic department of Beijing Railway Administration;

In 1968, worked in railway station.