

Wang Zhijing, Manager of Information Management Department of Sinotrans Co.,Ltd

1994-1997, University of International Business and Economics, Master;

1983-1987, Beijing Technology and Business University, Bachelor;

1987, entered Sinotrans Co., Ltd, worked in the department of information management, logistics, strategic research and overall management, and now works on information-based project construction. The main projects he is engaged in are: group IT strategy, Office Automation System, competitive intelligence system, and he is also in charge of budgeting and executing of project, cost analysis, project verification and management and monitoring in the period of project implementing.