

Fu Zhiheng, China Great Wall Industry Corporation (CGWIC), Executive Vice President, Senior Engineer

2001-2004, studied in China University of Mining Technology and received a master's degree;

1987-1991, studied in Northwestern Polytechnical University and received a bachelor's degree

2009-present, served as the Executive Vice President of CGWIC and General Manager of the launch service department;

2005-2009, worked as the General Manager of astronavigation department of CGWIC;

1999-2003, worked as the District Director of astronavigation department of CGWIC;

1997-1999, worked as the Business Manager of astronavigation department of CGWIC; 1993-1997, worked as the General Manager's Secretary in CGWIC;

1991-1993, worked as the Assistant Engineer of 200th factory, the first research institute of Aerospace Science and Technology Group Co., LTD.